One Salinas Arts Festival invites all artists between the ages of 12 and 24 who would like to feature their work during this event to submit an application. Please fill out one application for each visual and performing art submission. See information below.

One Salinas Arts Festival is a multicultural and multi-disciplinary event. We are dedicated to encouraging unity and peace in our community and therefore may not accept art that is attacking, derogatory or hateful to any person, group, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation, culture, origin, or any work promoting such behavior in others.

One Salinas Arts Festival Exhibition Rules

1. Artwork must be original. Paper artwork should be mounted on cardboard, posterboard, or foamboard and/or framed
2. Entries must be original, hand-produced artwork. Please do not use copyrighted material. Entries with inappropriate language or subject matter will not be accepted.
3. Renderings may be based upon existing published imagery, but they must be creatively modified in the artist's own style.
4. Any media may be used, and suitable for hanging or pedestal display. Mixed media, crayons, markers, pen and ink, colored pencils, paint, pastels, glue, glitter, collage, sand, yarn and other materials that create texture may be used.
5. All entries must be dry before submission in order to be included.
6. A completed entry form, signed by the artist (and a parent, teacher, or guardian if under 18) must be attached to the back of the artwork.
7. All reproduction rights to all of the submitted artwork will remain with the artists. However, all entrants shall agree that the One Salinas Arts Festival be granted non-exclusive reproduction rights for advertising, promotion, website, and print publication purposes.
8. All entries must be picked up at the Hartnell College Gallery between April 16 and April 18, 2011.
